		 1960 Rambler Custom 4-door club hardtop sells for $1,795.	During a Kremlin news conference, Premier Khrushchev launches a personal attack on President Eisenhower saying "the best job he could have is Head of a children's home where he could do no harm, but as the Head of State he is dangerous and can do great harm".  New York City: The National Council of Churches condemn the amount of sex and violence now on TV and Radio.	Broadway theaters are shut down for the first time since September 7th, 1919, as a result of a contract dispute between the 12,000-member AFL-CIO Actors Equity Association and the League of N.Y. Theaters.  The sister of Adolf Hitler, Paula Wolf, 64, dies in Germany. She adopted the name Wolf in the early 1920's. 	Russian poet and novelist Boris Leonidovich Pasternak, 70, Nobel Prize-winning author of "Doctor Zhivago", is buried in Moscow (died May 30th).  Legendary jockey Johnny Longden, 53, announces his retirement from horse racing. 	The National Education Association annual report indicates that average annual salaries of classroom teachers for the following States are: 1) California $6,525 2) Alaska $6,500 3) New York $6,300
Senate majority leader Lyndon Baines Johnson, 51, (Texas), becomes the 5th announced candidate for the Democratic Presidential Nomination. Two previously announced candidates, Senators Humphrey and Morse, have already quit the race. 	According to a recent joint-commissioned report, one out of four Americans has sought professional help to deal with emotional disturbances. 42% of those seeking help were for marital problems. Most people seeking help choose clergymen for professional help (45%). 	The American Heart Association reports that a number of medical studies have shown a "statistical" association between cigarette smoking and death or illness from coronary heart disease. 	The average annual wage per working person in the U.S. for this year is $2,606. 	In a ceremonial demonstration, legendary singer Bing Crosby is presented with a symbolic platinum disc in recognition of his 200 millionth record sale from his 125 albums and 2,600 singles. 	Boston, Massachusetts: World Middleweight Boxing Champion, Paul Pender retains his title in a 15-round decision following a rematch with 5-time former champion, Sugar Ray Robinson. This is his first defense of the title. 	"Celtic Ash" with jockey William Hartack aboard wins the Belmont Stakes Horse Race for 3-year-olds, racing down the 1 1/2-mile track in 2:29 3/5. Second place goes to "Venetian Way" with "Disperse" placing third in this historic race first run in 1867.
President Eisenhower embarks on a tour that will take the nation's leader to Alaska, the Philippines, Taiwan and South Korea. 	Walt Disney's recently-released black & white live-action feature film "The Sign of Zorro" is playing in theaters across the nation. The movie, starring Guy Williams as "Zorro", was produced to take advantage of the popular response to the TV series. 	Speaking before a Senate investigation, Jake LaMotta, former World Middleweight Boxing Champ, confesses that he threw a fight November 14th, 1947, against Billy Fox in N.Y. LaMotta says he was only playacting when the fight was stopped in the 4th round with Fox winning by a TKO. He tells the truth because the statute of limitations has run out. 	A new film, "The Apartment" premieres in New York City, starring Jack Lemmon, Shirley MacLaine and Fred MacMurray. Directed and written by Bill Wilder, the movie will win the 1961 Oscar for "Best Film". 	A girl with a stolen bankroll hides out at The Bates Hotel in the Alfred Hitchcock film "Psycho" released by Paramount. The movie stars Anthony Perkins, Janet Leigh, Vera Miles and Martin Balsam.  The Broadway strike that affected 124 theater owners ends as an offer raising minimum pay to $111 per week is accepted along with other benefits. 	In a Major League Baseball game at Cleveland's Municipal Stadium between the Indians and the Boston Red Sox, Ted Williams connects for his 500th career home run. 	Arnold Palmer shoots a sensational final round 65 with one of his late charges, to win the 60th U.S. Open Golf Championship by two strokes over amateur Jack Nicklaus at the Cherry Hill Golf Course near Denver, Colorado.
Americans celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Father's Day observance. The idea originated with Mrs. John Bruce Dodd of the YWCA of Spokane, Washington. On May 25th Robert Kennedy, 34, father of 7, is named this year's "Father of the Year". 	Polo Grounds, New York: 31,892 fans watch as Floyd Patterson becomes the first man in boxing history to regain the Heavyweight Championship of the World as he knocks out Ingemar Johansson of Sweden at 1:51 of the 5th round with a left hook. Patterson lost the title to Johansson on June 26, 1959. 	Armin Hary, a high profile German sprinter, makes world record track history, racing the 100 meters in 10.0 seconds flat at a meet in Zurich. Hary will go on to win a Gold Medal in September at the Rome Olympics. 	The N.Y. State Athletic Commission sponsors a medical conference to study injuries & deaths in professional boxing. It concludes that a ring knockout does not produce lasting changes in the brain. The term "punch-drunk" was a point of controversy as one group felt it was the result of repeated knockouts, and the other believed the knockouts have nothing to do with the condition. 	The United States Secret Service celebrates its 100th anniversary.  A navy-sponsored 5-year research study indicates that bottle-nosed dolphins have a brain equal to, if not superior to, man. It is hoped that one day man will be able to "speak" with dolphins. 	The popular CBS Radio show "The Romance Of Helen Hunt" airs for the final episode after 7,222 shows. "Helen" and her boyfriend "Gil Whitney" are about to be married but don't make it to the altar. The show aired for 27 years. 	Judy Holliday plays a phone-answering-service employee who tries to change clients' lives in the MGM movie release "Bells Are Ringing". Directed by Vincente Minnelli, the film stars Dean Martin, Fred Clark, Eddie Foy Jr., and Jean Stapleton.
